

Alfonso Castellanos Ribot

Social Anthropologist. Worked for 20 years in the cultural public sector in Mexico and for the last 12 years on Cultural Information Systems, cultural statistics and indicators, networks and development of web based tools. From 2003 to 2008 was National Coordinator for Strategy and Prospective Studies in the National Council for the Arts and Culture (CONACULTA), an area in charge of generating, disseminating and analyzing information with the purpose of cultural policy evaluation. Under that responsibility developed a Cultural Information System (www.sic.gob.mx) and coordinated the Cultural Infrastructure Atlas, the Survey on Cultural Participation and a Survey on Reading, a project on audience research, and designed the concept for Mexico's national cultural portal (www.ecultura.gob.mx).

Recently acted as Lead Expert of the Task Force of international specialists on the review of The 2009 UNESCO Framework for Cultural Statistics, coordinating the discussions for the elaboration of its final version, which will be submitted to the General Assembly of UNESCO.

Currently developing a project of an Inter-American Cultural Information Network for the Organization of American States, and coordinating a study on the Economic and Social Contribution of World Heritage Sites in Mexico. Member of the International Steering Committee of Culturemondo (www.culturemondo.org).