

Mulenga Mpundu Kapwepwe

Miss Kapwepwe was born on 7th October 1958 in Lusaka, Zambia. She is a graduate of the University of Zambia and holds a double degree in Psychology and Sociology.

In addition to writing and producing educational materials, short stories and plays, Miss Kapwepwe has produced videos, television and radio programmes on a number of subjects. Miss Kapwepwe served as Technical Consultant to the European Union and is currently Technical and Policy Advisor to the Ministry of Sport Youth and Child Development. She is also the Chairman of the National Arts Council of Zambia, the statutory administrative body for the arts.

She is the Patron of a number of Associations, including the Women in Visual Arts Association, the Zambian Folk Music and Dance Association, The Youth For Culture Association and Vice Chairman of the Ukusefya pa Ngwena Cultural Association, Zambia Visual Arts Council, and The Zambia Women Writers Association.

As a published author, Miss Kapwepwe has written a number of award winning plays and books. She sits on the Zambia Commission for UNESCO, and the Arts Institute of Africa and Chairs the Arterial Network.