

Paul Wairoma

Born in Kenya, Paul studied entrepreneurship education/business studies and began his career as a teacher. He founded the Riruta Girlchild Development Centre Nairobi, an advanced theatre project for the rights of girls to access education slums. He founded the Lake Victoria Special Arts Initiative - an art skills training project for homeless youths and the mentally ill where he is the Executive Director.